Family, There are so many good things and good times to say about Bobby Joe and you all know and have witnessed his jokes, shenanigans and his love for life. He was such a sweet little boy growing up and full of energy, and bringing all his full of life to manhood, always ready to be the person to lift you up when you were feeling blue. The one who knew if you were in need of a kind word, or something witty to say to you. Never the less he was your go to guy, your right arm man. Bobby you were such a beautiful person inside and out. Know that you were missed the day you went into the hospital and now that you have gone on to a much better place you have taken many hearts with you. We love you forever and ever and can't wait to see you in heaven. Love has drawn you to heaven to be with family and they know they have gained a precious angel. Miss and love you cousin Joe as you liked to be called. But to us who are your family you will always be Bobby Joe. Forever Buttercup, Your cousin Roni Faye

There is so many memories of Joe it is impossible to pick one. My best one is the day I met him because that's the day I had a friend for lifetime. Joe was the funniest person in my life, he has pulled my moods from way down to super hi in seconds. No one will ever come close to being like him. Joe Berry was one of a kind and I am super proud to have been his friend for over 20 years (which was not enough time). I love his family they are the best. Bobby Joe Berry I love you with all my heart, you will never be forgotten. R.I.P. my friend. ♥♥♥♥
