She was the happiest and bubbliest girl ever... she hugged everyone and anyone. I remember watching her cheerleading performance at homecoming assemblies you could not not pay attention to her and her beautiful smile. She will never be forgotten.

White Reese's and beef sticks. I'm a cashier at the Maroa Casey's General Store and I would always look forward to Savannah coming in to buy her favorite snacks. She truly DID have an infectious smile. It was only a week or so ago, when she and her sister came in and we were joking about how much they looked so much alike. Such a beautiful, shining light taken from this existence, but moving on to a more glorious one in Heaven. Rest in serenity, Savannah and know that you are missed by so many.
