Sally was not only a classmate of my son, Jeff DeVore, but a dear sweet friend of mine and coworker at Aratex. We always had a lot of fun together. Sally was a special girl and I loved that sweet girl. I know she's going to be missed by many. Hold your memories close.

I used to sit with Sally and her daughter at Mass. Years ago it seems she and her daughter were servers at Mass and always did a wonderful job. Sally was always so upbeat and happy and was a joy to know. Shirley Blickensderfer
