To Jose and all his precious family. We continue to pray for you and yours. You were tops in our book. Always making sure everyone was treated special. You had a smile we all admired and the most gracious way about you. You were an example to all, your family, your friends, your customers, your employees. May God give you peace, and all that loved you strength to comfort their hearts ♥. We shall all be together some day. Sincerely, Dave & Kathy Davis

My heart goes out to Layo's family and all of his El Corral family. He was a great Christian friend, business owner, and example for others. I remember the days he would sit with Jan (my first wife of 45 years) and me to chat and always sharing his kindness. He even bought Jan's Mothers' day meal once. You will be MISSED GREATLY LAYO, Jose May you and Jan smile again in heaven. God be with all of your family! John F. Pierce

Jose was always very polite to everyone and always had a smile on his face! Knew him for many years of owning & running EL Corral. He built a great business and was a very prosperous young businessman. Was very shocked and saddened to hear this news. Always enjoyed talking business with Jose.
