Mt. Zion, IL – Amy Jo Beals, 52, of Mt. Zion, IL, passed away Monday, April 5, 2021, surrounded by her family.

Amy was born in Mattoon, IL, on February 20, 1969, the daughter of Walter R. Sheets and Dianne L. (Cochran) Renner. A graduate of Mt. Zion High School, Amy worked as an LPN at Warrensburg-Latham schools where the children loved her.

In June of 2007 she and her family left Clinton, IL and moved to Greenville, SC. She loved her family and worked as a nurse in Greenville until she was diagnosed with Primary Progressive MS in 2010. Eventually, as her disease progressed, she needed more care. After her husband and son were killed tragically in a car accident, she and her daughter were brought back to Illinois.

She leaves behind to deeply cherish her memory her daughter, Hailey Beals; mother, Dianne Renner and husband John; father, Walter Sheets and wife Jeannine; sister, Corrie Cool; brother, Todd Sheets and wife Rachel; grandfather, Ben Cochran and wife Joyce; brother-in-law, Rick Beals; stepsister, Jolyn Redden and husband John; stepbrother, Jamie Renner and wife Brenda; stepbrother, Shawn Nelson and wife Tara; stepbrother, Chad Nelson and wife Denise; stepsister, Stacey Bracken and husband Shane.

Amy was preceded in death by her son, Mason and her husband, Dan Beals.

A private family service will be held. The family will receive guests on Tuesday, April 13, 2021, at First United Methodist Church from 11 am until 12 pm. Private family burial will take place in Macon County Memorial Park.

I am so very sorry to hear this sad news. Growing up I always looked up to Amy and she was such a dynamic person-- fearless, fun, and beautiful. We had so much fun biking around MTZ and swimming at the lake together. My deepest condolences, she was a bright star that will be missed.

Dear John & Dianne, We have so many sweet memories of Amy growing up with Greg & Melanie. Wish we could be there for her service but will be with you in spirit. Amy had a wonderful zest for life and was the golden girl. My favorite memory is of her dancing at her Uncle Paul's wedding. She was the most beautiful girl in the room. May your memories ease your pain. She is at peace with the angels and our arms are around you. Love & Hugs, Tom & Sue
