Dear Patty and family - Our condolences. I was fortunate to meet your mother several times while employed with you. She was a strikingly beautiful woman (as are you) who treated me as an old friend rather than stranger. She was full of compassion, grace and intelligence. One meeting involved delivering something and she invited me in treated me as if she knew me all long then offered me something to drink. It was an impressive sight with orchestra music playing and Mark laying on the floor to which she explained his legs(hips) weren't good and the music was soothing to him and her both ❤️ We chatted a little and I left thinking that she truly was a wonderful person and knowing you all along have inherited her beauty, compassion, grace, intelligence and I'm sure so much more. Let the happy loving memories made be your bridge until you meet again 😊😘 sincerely Ana & Paul Walker

I met Pat about 35 years ago at her home when I came down to Decatur for the weekend with Patty. She made me feel welcome and was as kind to me the day I met her as she was at every meeting over the years. The things that will stay with me are her kindness, the sparkle in her eye when she spoke of her children and grandchildren, and her smile and laugh as she snuck in a special treat to her grandkids. A conversation with her was always enjoyable and informative and her strong willed convictions will be remembered. Pat you will be missed.
