Alan and I had the privilege of taking several Bible studies at Westminster with your mother and father. They were faithful people and delight to study God's word along side them. Always pleasant and kind. We are sorry for your loss. We know they are both, being together again, are smiling down on all of you! No matter how old a parent is when they pass, it is hard but when they loved God like yours did, may it be a comfort for you all to know the beauty that surrounds them both! We just loved them.
