Marian was one of our beloved mainstays in the women's 18-hole golf leagues--couldn't help but love her-- will always remember her favorite saying "Whatever"! She always set a good example for us--many prayers and tons of love from Joanne McCarthy.

My deepest sympathy to Betty, and the entire family. My Uncle Bill loved Marian very much, and she made him very happy. I will always remember them having coffee after church on Sunday with my parents Bob and Jeanette at my Grandma and Grandpa Dondeville's home. Marian was such a nice Aunt, and always had kind and loving things to say. I will always remember her as a great person. Full of love and compassion for others. Michele (Dondeville) Galloway

I am so sorry. Marian was one of the nicest ladies I have ever met. She was also so sweet to my mom, Roberta, at Lincolnshire. May the Holy Spirit grant you peace and comfort as you learn to navigate this life without her.
