Larry was my barber in the late 50's at Cec's Barber Shop working along side with Shelby Lewis. These two were a real "hoot" making my trip to the barber shop fun and hilarious!!! Many fun memories even though I was just a young kid. My message to Jeff and other family members.....Larry Cochran is a true asset in Heaven and the day will come when he and I will renew old times. RIP Larry!!!!

Rest In Peace, Uncle Larry. I will always remember fun days at our house in Decatur and your house in Oreana. Playing with Shara and Jeff and you used to call us "Sissy Tricks". I am glad you are out of pain and have moved on to a carefree place.
