When Carl passed we lost a good man. Carl was a class act. He had Christian values and stood strong by them. It was an honor to have Carl as a friend. Avid motorcycle fans Bobby shared a lot in common with Carl. Except them darn shoes that Bobby would wear to church & hold his foot out so Carl could see.

Carl told Bobby real men didn't wear shoes like that! Set in his ways I Loved the way he adored Kathy! You could see the love in Carl's face when he looked at her. Bless you my sweet friend Kathy. Holding you close in our hearts ❤️. Gone but not forgotten!

A friend of Carl for 52 years, known to my children, John and Crystal as Uncle Carl. Carl along with Kathy where there for them when I could not. For these selfless acts of kindness I will always be grateful. Going back those so many years ago have left many memories. Crazy, fun, light hearted experiences with a group of friends that have also passed on. You are going to be missed dearly my friend. Until we meet again, God Bless.
