Mike this is Debbie Craig from Batclay Library. I retired in March so I am not up to date on some things. I did not know of Shele's passing. Shele was a very sweet woman. I didn't know her very well, only when she came into the library. I lost my husband in December and I miss him terribly. I feel so bad for you. You and your family are in my prayers. You have my deepest sympathy.

Shele had a history degree like me. I remember her telling me when I was a kid that "that degree is hers and no one can take it away." She inspired me to get that degree with that simple sentence. She was a great woman.
