For the families who were fortunate to have Nancy as their child's caregiver she was so much more than a babysitter. She was a second mother or grandmother. To be able entrust one's child to another requires complete confidence. Nancy was that person to so many working moms. She was loved by and gave love to all her children. June Mann

My deepest condolences to Nancy's family. I was lucky enough to find her 20 years to care for our children while we worked. She always did a great job for us. She took great care of them. It gave me peace of mind when I was away from them. I'm sure other parents were as thankful as we were. She will be fondly remembered and greatly missed. Kathy (Dougherty) Cusey
