I'll miss Faye. She reminded me of my grandmother who had passed away just before Faye and I had met. They were both tough on the outside with big hearts on the inside. Faye had no qualms about speaking her mind, so when she gave praise, you knew it was genuine. I'll miss her colorful commentary on everyday life. Even the most mundane situations were potentially hilarious when Faye was involved.

You describe my grandmother perfectly. I'm glad to see she never changed. ❤️

She was the strongest, most independent woman I've ever met and I was lucky to be raised by her. She will be missed. She didn't like pictures but here is one with her great granddaughter.

My late mother, Barbara, was a former neighbor and friend to Faye. Even in moms last days ((3yrs ago) she would ask me if I knew where Faye was. I offer my condolences to the family. Tho I changed my name. I was Genanne.

Faye will be greatly missed by the Meals on Wheels' congregate team and participants. She visited with us during lunch for almost a year. She cared about program by sharing ideas on how to make it better and loved Skylor our site coordinator.
