Dear Gary, Steve, Sherri and family, I was deeply saddened to hear of Phyllis' passing. She was only a few years older than me, but we shared lots of good times with family. She and Bill lived just across the back yard from Mom and Dad so we could visit often. She gave me a bridal shower and Sherri was the flower girl in my wedding 54 years ago. Phyllis and I talked by phone after I moved to Pueblo. In recent years, those conversations meant a lot to both of us. I will truly miss the chance to visit with her. My prayers and love will always be with you. God bless you all. Ruth Anne and John
