Victoria Bridgeman lit a candle in honor of Lenora.

I loved feeding and watching the animals with Lenora. Our ducks even came back this year! She was a great neighbor and like another Grandparent to me. I loved listening to her stories about life with Jim. They were always funny stories. She will be missed terribly, but remembered fondly.

I wish I could attend the funeral to meet all of you. Leonora's mother was my first cousin. Leonora and I played together as children, but then lost touch. I am glad I happened to see her obituary. My sympathies to all of you.
