Curt and I are so sorry for your loss. I was never around Uncle Jim or Aunt Janey very much but I heard many stories of him and his brothers growing up in Decatur.

I remember many holiday and family get togethers with grandpa and grandma. Your grandfather was a very kind and loving man. I remember his gentleness, humbleness, and always his loving manner. I pray you are comforted in his passing as he is no longer suffering and in the arms of Jesus. He was always a pleasure to be around. I'm blessed to have known grandpa and grandma. Thank you for letting me be with you during these great days we all shared. Love Karen
