Amy Marie Mazzotti

SEP 4, 1984 - MAY 16, 2024

Motivating, captivating, next level in all she did. If you knew Amy Mazzotti, you knew the essence of who she was. On May 16, 2024, Amy was taken in a horrific car accident in Palm Harbor, Florida at the prime of her life. Amy was born September 4, 1984, in Binghamton, NY, and died on May 16, 2024, near Lakeland FL. From an early age, Amy exhibited leadership qualities and a drive to facilitate people to be their very best. She graduated from Mt. Zion HS in 2003, and Millikin University in Decatur IL in 2018 with a degree in Organizational Leadership. Prior to her graduation, she was a Production Team Leader at CAT in Decatur, and graduated from Mr. Johns' School of Cosmetology in 2008. Her desire to focus on wellness inspired her to create A-Team Boot Camp, which gave countless women a new goal for fitness and whole-body health. In 2017, A-Team was voted the #1 gym in the area in the Herald & Review Reader's Choice Poll. She also was awarded one of the "20 under 40" for her accomplishments in the Decatur Business Journal. Her journey continued in Texas, as she became a top IFBB Wellness Athlete and lifestyle coach. In 2022, Amy placed 3rd in the Branch Warren Classic Women's Wellness 35+. Not to settle for anything less, Amy competed again in 2023 the competition and placed 2nd in the true novice division, and first place in the Master's competition of 35+. She relocated to Florida late in 2023 to continue her coaching and body-building career and assist with her daughter, Ariya's athletic pursuits.

She is survived by her daughter Ariya; mother Julie (Gale) Glasco of Oldsmar, FL; father Larry (Joyce) Mazzotti of Mt. Zion; sister Jodi Mazzotti and her son Silas Majercik; stepbrothers Justin (Nikki) King and Eric (Amelia) Glasco; and stepsister Courtney Glasco. She also is survived by her grandmother Claire Slagle; uncle Tim Slagle, uncle Gary (Michelle) Mazzotti, and step-aunts Kathy Wilder and Debra Belack as well as numerous cousins, nieces, and nephews. Grandfather Robert Slagle

There are so many, but the one that gets to my heart is missing her Jersey talk, walking into my store saying aloud "Hi Beautiful Love" as she gets her C4 and her protein bar! She would have me flex my arms for her and she would say "you firm with them mosquito bites arms" and in return I would always say, yea one sting from me will give them malaria!! Omg she would crack up all the time, as well myself and others around!!! I miss her so much, till this day I can still hear her voice and still feel this is just a dream and she will walk into my store

I met Amy when she was first getting into doing hair through a friend. Then when she got A-Team started I joined her gym and loved it. She helped motivate me, encouraged me, and helped me feeling better about myself. I loved her she was an awesome person beautiful on the inside and out. I'm sooooo thankful that I got the chance to know her. Continued prayers going out to the family and friends of Amy. To know her was to love her for sure.

Amy you will be missed. About 3 years ago I started working out with Amy she pushed me sooo hard to loose weight I never in my life been so happy to eat healthy and be healthy. April 1st I relocated to Tampa. I reached out to Amy a few weeks ago to start working out with her. I was so excited and still is I can hear her clear as day saying LETS GO!!! Amy as a strong motivated woman. She believed in every woman that wanted to loose weight. She made sure we reached every single goal. Amy not only loved to make sure we meet our goals she was a very good mother to her daughter. I WONT GIVE UP AMY. I'm still going to go as hard as you would have pushed me.

I inboxed Amy one day cause I was absolutely fed up with not being able to shed any pounds. When I stepped into A-Team & was greeted by Amy with her bubbly personality I knew right then I had made the best decision of my life!!! Everyday all I heard was "Jarrett Let's Go" I'm definitely gonna miss you Amy I only had you for a brief moment but it was VERY IMPACTFUL. I pray healing, strength, & guidance to the Family & I Love You Amy ☐☐

Amy and I were neighbors at Hickory Point Apartments. She was always so nice and spoke every time we seen each other. I followed her on Facebook where I seen all her achievements and goals she pursued. I loved her sense in fashion too. You will be missed. Truly an angel on earth. Fly high baby! ❤️

Amy is someone that I will forever associate with strength and power. She is one of the most determined people I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. I will always admire how when she had a goal in mind, she did not give up until it was achieved. Her love for life and people and family and friends literally radiated out of her... and she shined like the absolute superstar that she is. Amy is the epitome of a "girls girl" and every woman around her felt safe and heard and cared for because of it. Amy was and is one of a kind and there will never be another like her. Thank God we were all so lucky to have encountered her and to have been graced with her smile and joy.

I've been knowing Amy a little over 3 years and she became my fitness coach and trainer in 2023 but we've created a bond that was well beyond fitness and training before she became my coach. She became a close friend almost like a sister, I love her so much and I will miss my beautiful queen. I'm going to keep her legacy going because she never gave up on me and I've never had someone to push me as hard as she did. Fly high baby
