Mick is my oldest, closest, and dearest friend... if not soulmate... For 61 years. When our daughter, Shannon was born, we were melded together , all three of us, for the rest of time. And yes, he was able to bring a smile to all of our faces and hearts from beginning to end. Though the silence is now deafening and our hearts are in pain, both Shannon and I have a smile in our hearts, knowing that Mick has taken wing and touched the face of God. Our family had an agreement that we would never say goodbye, and in that spirit ... Shannon and I will see you later. Mick ❤️ Josie (Sam, as he called me)
