Leo and I spent 2 years and 3 days together. He sure loved his dogs, the Steelers, and fishing. I will forever love him and he will never be forgotten. ☐☐☐

I've known Leo a couple of years now. He always made us laugh! He loved his girlfriend, dogs and his position as a volunteer firefighter. He will be greatly missed. John & Valerie

My fondest memory of my brother is sledding down Sherman street hill, when we were kids and hitting the driveways each time catching some big air. I was on my brother's back. I'm listening to the wind get knocked out of him each time we landed. When we hit the ground again and again, we're laughing so hard. Or, at least I was. I will miss you, my brother, may you rest in peace my Brother, Butch
