“ Kim, I am so grateful for childhood memories of spending time at your home through the years. I will miss your mom's thoughtful cards that she sent me each year. I am so happy we were able to have such a sweet visit a year ago. It was such a wonderful day. She will be missed. So sorry for your loss.

“ Barb was always smiling and I used to tease her about her hair always being so perfect all the time, going to her house at Christmas was such a treat as it was always beautiful.

Peace be with the family
