

Klay Alec Richert

May 31, 2018 - January 10, 2021

Klay Alec Richert, the sweetest little boy, was born May 31, 2018, in Lincoln, IL to Keagan and Destinee Richert. Klay was reunited with Jesus January 10, 2021. He took his last breath at home, being held by his mom and dad.

Klay leaves behind his mom and dad; two sisters, Bylee and Elsie, who he loved so much; Papa and Mima (Daniel and Shannon Shreve); grandma (Cathy Richert), numerous great-grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, and so many others who loved and cared for him. Klay was preceded in death by his grandpa and best buddy, Mark Richert.

Klay had such an infectious smile, laugh, the most beautiful captivating green eyes and the best dark, long, eyelashes. Anyone who knew or heard about Klay automatically loved him. He was the most caring and loving little boy, always protecting and taking care of those he loved. You could never be sad around Klay, he would always find a way to make you smile or laugh. He gave the best hugs and kisses, making sure your attention was on him. In such a short two and a half years, Klay won over the hearts of thousands of people.

He loved playing with his “sishy” Brylee. They were always running, climbing, dancing, having all of the laughs and smiles. We cannot forget how “sishy” gave THE BEST hugs and how much Klay loved snuggling her. Klay also loved holding “his baby” Elsie. He refused to share her; Elsie was only his. He enjoyed watching Mickey Mouse, PJ Masks, Cocomelon, and of course, baby shark. He loved his pup pup, Sarge, who helped fill the room full of laughter when playing. Klay will forever be loved and remembered by his family, friends, and all those who his story has touched over the years.

The visitation for Klay will be held Friday, January 15, 2021, from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. at Full Gospel Evangelistic Center 304 North McLean Street, Lincoln, IL 62656. The family will be having a private funeral ceremony. CDC and IDPH guidelines will be followed, social distancing and masks are required.

“ I know it hurts and though he has won. Its seems as though you've lost. God gave him to you because he knew you were the best parents and family for him. Cry, yell. Sob, question, talk, laugh, let your children do the same. Don't let anyone tell you to be strong because when you are weak then you are strong. Jesus has Klay in his arms, but he also has you. There will be hard, harder and hardest days ever. But hold onto hope that one day Jesus will call you home too. We now turn our prayers from Klay and whole heartily pray for those who loved Klay and cared for him that Jesus will give you peace that this world can not offer.
