“ I am so sorry to learn of Bob’s passing. I worked with him for many years at Tate & Lyle. I learned a lot from him. He was a good person. He shared many stories about his family with us. My condolences to Dolly and family.

“ Bob, our brother Bill, some of their friends, and I went swimming in the St. Mary's river down past Clyde's hamburger stand. There was a raft anchored partway out in the river and everyone but Bob and me swam out to the raft. I couldn't swim and Bob was trying to teach me how to float. One of the guys yelled for Bob to join them and he yelled back that he was helping me. The guy said something like, "Screw him". Bob yelled back, "Screw you" and continued helping me. After a while I told Bob to go on out to the raft and I'd just hang out in the shallow water. He swam out there but I never forgot that incident. He was a good brother.
